PHILADELPHIA STORE. POSTOFFICE CORNER,

WE HAVE 400 LADIES': COATS

in store, ranging in price from $8,00 to $12.00. We want to close them all out before Christmas, and have made the uniform tribe in the neighborhood—a sort of chilled more. "Ask and it shall be given unto a we crept through my system regarding you," is what they have been taught and in their southful in the southful in their southful in the so ---Price of--- which have been selling regularly all fall for $8.00 and $12.00.

"FIVE DOLLARS"

125 dozen Gentlemen's Ties, regular 75 cents and $1.00 quality, on sale this week only for Holiday Gifts at

"25 CENTS."

Positively not more than 3 sold to any one Customer.

A. KATZ.

eneral interest.

of our literature.

The regular monthly meeting of the city teachers was held yesterday at the high school from 9 a. m., to 13 m. Miss gram consisted of a variety of short treated not only of strictly professional topics but of literary and other matters of

The object of these meetings is not the immediate work of the schools, but it includes also the consideration of all subjects exiculated to promote popular intelligence and general culture. Miss Josie Millen of the Webster school paid & grateful tribute to the memory of him whose

Miss Millen's paper gave unmistakable evidence or a close acquaintance with the best productions which England's recent laureste has furnished for the enrichment

"The forces which influence in the pri-

The important part of history and metic and referred to the criticisms fre-attained. The blame for the failure of Pupils should be trained to perform with facility and accuracy the various simple opera-gent use of their knowledge in the solu-ion of complex problems.

The power to master the principles of analyses of process, is a power that does not belong to all pupils at the same age.

To make clear explanations of their work, thereby to show their understanding of principles, should be required of every pupil in proportion to his ability.

The foregoing topics were discussed at onsiderable length by Misses Flower, Shuitz and Smith, and Mesars. Shuil and Dr. Richardson hald great stress on the importance of thorough work, intelligent work and nest work. Nothing should be accepted from a pupil that is not the result of his best effort. His writing should conform to correct principles. He referred to the great importance of the pupil's position at desk, and asked that all dillgence be used by teachers in securing easy natural and withal correct position. He

Mr. James Allison of the school board responded to an invitation to address the effect nor fail of due appreciation.

At the conclusion of the general exer-

FOOTBALL AT CHRISTMASTIDE,

The Wellington football team has acpiel a chillenge from the Lewis Acade making arrangements for a good time.

The Wichita boys may not like the cordial reception which the Wichita girls are going to give the University Glee and Bunjactub, but they are point to have to go to the concert just the same to take their best girls, because after seeling the photographs, which are displayed in som-of the show windows, no girl can resist the chance to see the boys and to hear them sing and play.

ithmetic and to farnish clear and logical mently made on the alleged poor results

W. H. BOWDER PER SE. The Fanny Divorce Case Called Up Yesterday and Continued.

The divorce case of William H. Bowdre | Jessie Clark had charge of the music with which the exercises were interspers-This is the case in which the petition, filed about two weeks erc, showed, as the plaintiff alleged that the defendant "had papers on various tooles." These flistrict court yesterday in peculiar manner been guilty of gross neglect of duty in this: Irregular cooking and sometimes not cooking at all; and that the principal bread was pancakes."

The plaintiff was formerly a school teacher near Haysville, and in bringing his suit employed no attorney but prepared the petition himself, and as a legal and literary currosity it has caused no little amusement among the lawyers about decease all lovers of our noble Euglish language yet mourn-Alfred Tennyson.

Yesterday he went to the clerk's office and on obtaining it walked into the court room and, addressing Judge Reed, said: "I want to get my divorce."

"What case is that?" inquired the court. "It is my case against the defendant, Clara E. Bowdre," responded Bowdre, "But what is the number?" as Judge Reed, and on being handed the petition told the plaintiff there mary grades," was the subject of an inwas no such case on the docket, and that no motion had been made toplace it there, so the case could not be heard.

This surprised the plaintiff as he had a portant subject of genlow. She will be a portant subject of genlow. She will be a portant subject of genlow. She will be a portant subject of genlow. She will have the carbolic noid. But not be heard.

This surprised the plaintiff as he had a portant subject of genlow. She will be a portant subject of genlow. She will be a portant subject of genlow. She will be a portant subject of genlow.

large number of witnesses with him and very humorous account of errors which thought it no trouble to secure a divorce improperly taught pupils will make in "while you wait." He finally discovered their effort to determine in what part of that he did not know how to proceed and asked the court for information. The judge told him he was not practicing law "tribulations" (tributaries). and could not advise him but intimated, however, that a different kind of petition the value of the study of our would be necessary before he could expect own country's history in promoting to reach a trial of the case. The matter patriotic citizenship were presented in a went over until next Saturday.

Went over until next Saturdsy.

Had the phintiff known it was necestary and examined the record he would have the time he was asking.

Miss Dickinson's established reputation as lawe found that at the time he was asking on instructor gave her suggestions very for the divorce the defendant had not been served with process and was not in court.

Mr. McMachael, principal of the Frank-Mr. McMichael, principal of the Frank-lin school, dealt with the subject of aritheither in law or in person.

AMUSEMENTS.

great actress, Mile, Rhea, to a group of teacher, most of whose pupils do succeed.

In New York a short time. in New York a short time ago, "that Na-poleon did not marry lille. Cleary, to whom he was engaged in his youth. If he had, I would still have been traveling around the country suffering with "Ca-mille," "Frou Frou" and "Adriente," in-stead of living the life each evening of one of the nobles: and greatest women whose name ever secrated the pages of the history of France, My leading man, Mr. Figri made the same exclamation after reading this incident in Napoleon's life in Lockhard's history of France. The great war-rior. He feeleds I do, that the young Consider would not have been the Napoleon of history had be not come under the strong, yet benign influence of the Empross Jesephine. I think we both have reason to be that matters turned on as they did. Had they been different I would not be interpreting a character with which I am more in sympathy than one I ever played, and, I venture to say without fear of offending. Mr. Hart, that the pub-Le would have had to wait some time longer before seeing what excellent work he was capable of doing."

If reports are to be believed, Mile, Rhea does not exaggerate matters. The critics the work as he had witnessed it in his declare that the handsome actress has visus to the various schools. never given the American people such a finished and thoroughly artistic piece of work as she does in "Josephine," and that Mr. Hart's interpretation of Napoleon bis and business like. He saked of the strangest to an invitation to address the teachers this remarks were plain, sensible and business like. He saked of the strangest to an invitation to address the teachers the saked of the grongest impersonations known to modern theater goers. "Josephine" will be gorn here before long. All the properties and are so ries used in the largest metro.

At the conclusion of the goeral start. incline will be brought into cless the intlinte divided into grades in which some special work was done.

requisition here. At the transport Grand, The, 21.

Mr. Bion Hunchings says that the Wellington Milling company has jucompleted one of the fluest elevators to be my eleven and will play a game here next found in the state. It has a cleaning on Saturday. Notwithshanding the greet pacity of forty-eight cars per forty-eight hours, and a storage expansity of seventy they are the best of friends and the Analhours, and a storage expanity of seventy thousand bushels. The elevator was conemy boys propose to treat the visitors in royal style when they come for the band structed of southern lumber, which was laid down to them at less than fifteen doisome manner in which they were enter-trained while at Wellington. They are lars per thousand feet.

Parson Smith, the colored preacher that had his lead pounded by Bill Thatcher Friday night, was taken to the hospital yesterday. He had been injured internal rol is suffering from hemorrhage of the lungs.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

To the Editor of the Magic. must have spent a great deal of time failing. She usually spins a tune while in midur—I think that is why we call her "heirioom." One of the first things she did after deciding to remain with us was to build a horse great great and a collection of the first things and deconcessis i cancer upon her back and reducing groot bills.

Geath reader, i am serious when I say that you can get a house in our neighbornood "reat free" a year if you will guarantee to exercise the spirit of "Our Black Cat."

BETH. to build a narrow guage railway up the old apple tres overhanging our back root. I marveled at this at first, but when I saw what an excellent view it gave her of all the hours until the arrival of Santa Claus,

For any of them.

In this black! No basselief in white or grey; just black, ominous color.

Well after she got the road built, she used it, mostly nights, in fact every night she came up bringing a heavy train. We sheep by the window, not five feet from the roof—I offer an amendment—we hay there thinking, thinking, Slowly it dawns upon us that we must raise that roof to the same place to remain until his next annual visit but should be take cognizance of the following little state contrained by the window, not five feet from the roof—I offer an amendment—we hay there used to the same place to remain until his next annual visit but should be take cognizance of the following little the guest of Mrs. J. C. Mrs. H.W. Lewis entertaine to the same place to remain until his next annual visit but should be take cognizance of the following little the guest of Mrs. J. C. Mrs. H.W. Lewis entertaine to doubt, be remembered next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. H.W. Lewis entertaine of doubt, be remembered next Saturday avening. Wight the guest of Mrs. J. C. Mrs. H.W. Lewis entertaine to the same place to remain until his next annual visit but should his ne the south was chosen executioner. Judg-ing by her eye, she suspected the nature of her undertaking. She made a lovely saisd of butter, eggs, rough on rats, place! It between two tempting slices of cold ment. Feeling rather low down, we stond far off and watched the cat set which sine ment. Feeling rather low down, we stood far off and watched the cat eat, which she did, not greedily, but rather as one who enjoyed an opicurean dish, sedom received. When she had supped the last morsel, and smacked her lips upprovingly, then looked 'round for more, she rolled up her eyes, seemed to smile, at the same time giving a recitative from "Trovitore," she turned and walked majestically away. One by one we followed thinking it no more than right to give decent burnel, we followed 'round and round the back yard, through grape vines and "cat alleys," but when she entered a rat hole under the barn we prudently waited outside. Then when the cat came forth no more; we wept softly and depart-The object of these interests and the second of views concerning forth no more; we wept softly and depart-the immediate work of the schools, but it ed to our several homes, sadder, wiser

That night you could have heard the air That night you could have heard the air vibrate in our neighborhood. We were so intensely happy in our fancied security. How we could sleep! Christonier Columbus! What do you think! At the usual time we heard that low recitation in the distance. How it swelled as on it came, notif, with a mighty chorus, they began operations promptly at 9 o'clock on the root. We hurriedly closed the window, except into hed, covered our heads and listened to that weird music the live-long night. In the morning we as a neighborhood conversed little. The lady on the north set out a gallon of mith highly flavored with carboile and drank freely until the milk was gone. The ball deven, effect was the rome except that we all un-ticed how much better were her high tones than usual, that night. I call her our cat, not because we purchased and paid for her as we would fee or coas, but because she came to us like the gentle dew of heaven, free as the night aid, monopolizes. Sometimes we allude to her as our beirlaom, because she fell to us. We don't know just how far she fell, but judging from her ability in that line she must have spent a great deal of time fail.

The dear little folks are now counting what an excellent view it gave are or an the surrounding back yards and alleys—and many of them, not unlike their elders, thus having the advantage of all the feline tribs in the neighborhood—a sort of chilled more. "Ask and it shall be given unto Did I say the cut was black?-inky! mld- ing letters to their mysterious friend, who comes from none knows where and returns to the same place to remain until city the guest of Mrs. J. C. Lythe. night! black! No bastelief in white or who comes from none knows where and thinking, thinking. Slowly it dawns upon us that we must raise that roof to the second story, move our bed, or kill the second story, move our bed, or kill the cat.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS.

We had already dropped her from the roof times enough to cover ber unith life, but these midair acts seemed really necessary to her general health.

Nightly she came up the "narrow gauge" with her train, the jeweicases, clocks, chair, etc., which we thoughtlessly tossed out of the window, she used in erecting a stage, for did I say they were rehersing "Trovatore," the black cat doing the gypev role with splendid effect.

Well at last our neighbors and we, (for our sorrows had long since become one) held meetings daily to discoss the advisability of murdering a cat which had come to us in such an open, fnee way. However, after much parlance, it was decided the black cat must die. I romember now that a small flying cloud impolitely lis upon be face of the xua, as the committee result the decision. But strangely enough this ill-omened fact was not construed by any one present, as the reflection of after events, casting their shalows upon that trying moment.

At 9 o'clock next morning—after tieing up the children—wa all assembled to warch the old cat die.

The girl who answers the door bell on the south was chosen executioner. Judging by her eye, she suspected the nature of ing by wasts a cup and saucer and a tooth to the south was chosen executioner. Judging by her eye, she suspected the nature of ing by wasts a cup and saucer and a tooth to the south was chosen executioner. Judging by her eye, she suspected the nature of ing by wasts a cup and saucer and a tooth to the south was chosen executioner. Judging by her eye, she suspected the nature of ing by wasts a cup and saucer and a tooth to the part of the conting t From NAUDE BURNHAM, 616 Mestlave.

WIGHITA, Kan., Dec. 17.

DEAR SANTA CLAUS-I would like to see you on Christmas. Please bring me a drum and the stocks with them. Please fill my stocking and my brother's too and my sister's stocking with toys and nuts and cantry. I would like a sword and a soldler's cap to wear on my hard and my little brother wants a ball.

Mr. Santa Chaust-Please bring us a Christmas tree and put condles on it and bring my little sister a little ball. Please make us all happy on Christmas morning bright and carly. And make it a bright, happy day for everybody. Santa Chause, you kind man, I love you very much. Bring my brother liert a sword. My papa wants a cup and saucer and a tooth brush. Oh, I love you much indeed.

MERILE E, HATFIELD.

To the Editor of the Eagle. The Columbian club of Sedgwick county us among its list of committees one entitled a "committee on literature." It is the duty of persons assigned to this branch of work to collect and place in order for use in the woman's building, the names o women in this city and county who have done literary work of any kind, such as the writing of books, short stories or other articles for publication, newspaper correspondence and poetry. The com-mittee desire to hear from every woman who has done work of this kind, and for this reason request such persons to corespond with the ladies whose names are abscribed below, in order that no mertorious person shall be overlooked, Please let us receive all communications before the end of the year.

Mus. Many C. Topp.

MRS. LORA R. PRIDDY. MRS. J. M. KNAPP.

Crimson is the color of the State university, and if all the girls who have signified their intention of doing so wear crimson ribbon, etc., the Glee and Banjo club boys will see so much crimson around that they will be able to imagine themselves the University football team returning to Lawrence after a season of unbroken vic-tories. As a matter of fact, several members of the Give club belonged to the loot-

Mrs. Frank B. Smith, who has been vis-ting friends in Iowa returned yesterday. Miss Sarah Chapman will apend the holidays in St. Louis with Miss Beatrice Thomas

George and Mrs. Locke have returned from a two week's visit at Chicago. Mrs. M. J. West, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Euoch, has re-turned home to Clairsville, O. Mrs. Frank Fisher entertained quite a number of her lady friends Tuesday in honor of her sister, Miss Emma Kauke of Ohio, who is visiting her.

Colonel and Mrs. B. H. Cumpbell have returned from a very pleasant eastern Miss lila Joseph will give a party to her young friends Monday night. City Attorney Gordon has been invited to respond to the toast, "The Future of the Republican party in Kansas" at the banquet to be held in Topeka, Jan. 50. Cards are out announcing a drive whist party at Mrs. W. F. Green's home Monday night.

Mrs. Polly Young is visiting at Quincy.

city visiting her husband. She is ac-companied by her only daughter a bright word out, had been replaced by two little miss of air or area.

Miss Emma Johnston, of Winfield, is in the city the guest of Miss Grace McAdams. Miss Myrtle Lee returned Thursday on their way to Arkausas City, where they from a visit with friends in Hutchinson. gave a concert last night. They report

Mrs. D. M. Brown has recovered from a Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Lane entertained Signor and Mrs. Barabini Friday at their nome on East Thirteenth street.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. gave a deasant social at the home of Mrs. Wonlette Friday evening.

Mrs. Ed Vail is home from Lockport, Indiana, where she attended the weiding of her sister, Miss King.

Mrs. Zariman, Mrs. Clough of Leavenworth, Mrs. G. M. Dixon and Mrs. N. A. Eoglish were guests of Mrs. E. A. Spangier at dinner on Tuesday.

Miss Holmes of Elgin, Ills., will return home Monday, after a pleasant visit here with her sister, Mrs. A. W. Bixby. A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Jennie Christopher at her home, 303 North Wichita street, Wednesday evening. Among those present were Misses Ella Burris, Anna Vreeland, Clara Pritchard, Rowena Woltskill, Flossie Richt, and Messrs Tunis Vreeland, Bruce Dixon, Howard Greer, George Kessler, Esrnest Misses and Allen

Harry Ripperton and Allen Miss Ruth Fazel's birthday occurred last Tuesday, and a number of her you rriends gave her a surprise party and sp friends gave her a surprise party and spent a pleasant evening with games and music. Elegant refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Ida Westfall, Emma Wilde, Blanche Culp, Roe Moyer, Hessie Fessl, Garriett Culp, Alvina Wilde, Bertha Vincent, Ella South, Gertie Vandine, Florence Culver, Hattle Sheppard, Gertie Fazel and May Culp, and Messers, Ottla Grove, Celvin Finch, Chartie Hovec, Ernest McDowell, Will Martin, McPello Jones, Harry Wilhite and Allison.

Miss Joselyn enterprised a number of Miss Jonelyn entertained a number of her friends Monday evening at a 7 o'clock supper. Cards followed and a box of box bons played for was won by the ladies of course. Among the guests were Misses Clement, Sara Chaonan, Emma Potts, Fannie Lewis, Elvie Walker, Ruby William, Besie Ryder and Mesars Younn, Gibbons, Russell, Wales, Osborne, George Lewis, F. L. Richt, Willard Boone and Gyde Ford.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given Miss Manne McClung Thursday escond season.

In a sacred Christmas Concert, forty escond season.

Seats on sale Thursday morning, at complete success and was heartily enjoyed. Those present were Misses Wagoner, Lellie Brunn, Daisy Brunn, Lola Granam, Abell, Bernice Evans, Maggie McCraa-Orpha Buck, Era Dewey, Gall Caldwell, Allie Dodge, Mrs. Julia Donu and Mesers-Earle Evans, Charlie Coswell, Oscar-Beard, Buttrey, Barton, Hare, Munsell, Carrie, Neal, O. A. Keach and Will Dean.

Carrie, Neal, O. A. Keach and Will Dean.

Mrs. T. M. Casad was given a surprise party on her birthday Friday by her little daughter Mary. The guests were served to a dainty luncheon by Mrs. Casad, consisting of sandwiches, fried oysters and chocolate, fruit, assorted cake and French canales. They were Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey, Master John Dorsey, Misses Irene and Marie Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. Bain, Master Douglas, Miss Lizzie Bain, Mrs. Berum, Miss Rice and Nieses Lyeth and Charlaine Furley.

Miss Rena Waling will lecture at the Of." Central Christian church tomorrow evening, accompanied by some of Wichita's tionists of this and other cities for her superiority as an elecutionat. This enter-Everybody is invited.

Two women were in from the country took home with them a goodly load, al Mrs. H. W. Lewis entertained the Cook- though the vehicle in which they rode was made up of the body of an old road Mrs. L. C. Barabini of Topska, is in the cart, the wheels of which, having been try visiting her husband. She is ac-

Mr. and Mrs. Ed O'Brien entertained a umber of friends at dinner on Taursday body and Newton, where they have given concerts on this tour.

> A merry company of friends assembled at the residence of Miss Mamie McClung, North Emporia avenue, last night to cele-brate the anniversary of her birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent by all.

Tom Voss received a letter yesterday from W. B. Wright of Latham, asking him to look out for a pair of grey mules, and 7 years old and about fifteen hands high, that were stolen Thursday night.

Jake Sever, the deputy sheriff at God-Miss Gertrude Rockwell of Taylorville, dard, brought A. Smith to the city yester-ills., who has been here on a visit to her day and lodged him in jail. He had been consin, Mrs. D. Hays, will return home bor and had been bound over to keep the peace. Failing to give bond, he had to go to jail.

> Lewis Kee who was wanted by the officers for a misdemeanor and got away Monday was captured yesterday by Officer Harmon and locked up at the static

CRAWFORD GRAND 0 L. N. CRAWFOD, Manager Ggo. N. Gowen, Local Manager EF Street cars at the door after each performance

One Night Only--Christmas, Dec. 25 The Mendelssohn Quintette Club Concert Co., of Boston.

Under the direction of Mr. Thomas Ryan Supporting Miss Lila Juci. Prima Donna, Court Favorite of Royal Court of Sweden. Mr. Herbort, Solo Flutist of Bremen,

Mr. Sol Marcosson, Violin Soloist of the Royal High School of Music in Wr. Willie Diestel, Violin Sololat of

Mr, Herman Diestel, Solo Violin-Mr. Thomas Ryan, Solo Clarinet and

In a sacred Christmas Concert, forty

Herman & Hess

Reform in trading, comes only when conscience leads buyers to "boycott" conscienceless sellers.

"The proof of the pudding lies not in chewing the string, but in eating there-

Each year we have been best musical talent. Miss Rega comes in business has more and highly recommended by the best elocutionists of this and other cities and the state of the said of the cities and other cities and cities an fact, but no year more than tainment is to be given under the author the present that we are espices of the Y. P. S. C. E of that church, too made by the public as teemed by the public as conscientious sellers of esterday buying Christmas presents and men's apparel, and all are aware that we never advertise other than the truth.

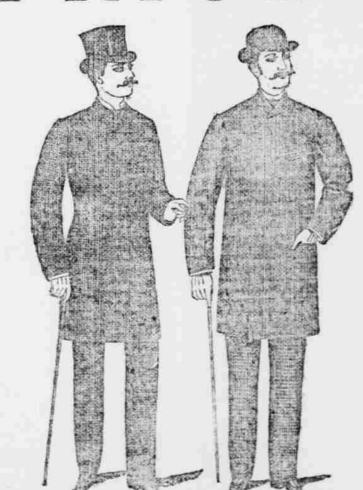

We have no dollars worth of clothing to sell for fifty cents, but we have one hunwent through Wichita yesterday morning dred cents worth to sell for a dollar. If you appreciate "full weight," "full measure" and full value for money invested steer clear of firms who advertise to give 2 for 1. It's a game of chance with 9 of the 10 against you. Human nature s the same wherever found and they who promise most perform least. If you will give us the opportunity to fulfill Our promise to You, Our word for it you'll not be disappointed, but may be agreeably surprised.

Herman & Hess MEN'S OUTFITTERS

406 East Douglas Ave.

-FORMERLY OF-SWAB & GLOSSER Can be found at 204 North Main Street, and I take this method of Informing my friends that I have just received a new stock of Solitings, Overcoatings, and Tronsers: and, in fact everything kent in a first lass establishment. I am a share of the rade of all my old friends, and boys by air dealing, to make a host of new one. Prices as low as consistent with good work, Friend of or north of eld County Building

SWAB, The TAILOR, 204 North Main St.

We have demonstrated by our marvelous growth how to sell Clothing cheaper than all others. Now we are going to show our Herculean Strength by letting down the Prices on

Men's and Boys Suits

Men's and Boys Overcoats

This is what we do: We break competitors prices to make more trade for us; sell cherper; sell more goods. The prices are marked way below any other retail establishment in Wichita, You cannot fully realize the immese stock of Men and Boy's Clothing we have, it's a genuine surprise to every visitor, The astonishment is still greater when you

Extra Low Prices.

Don't delay. Come tomorrow or next day; there is money in it for you. Don't fail to see our Tailor-made Overcoats in Beaver, Kersey and Melton worth from $15 to $22,50, this week at $9.98.

Our Holiday Offerings in Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Silver and Gold Headed Silk Umbrellas, Etc. Don't buy until you have seen and priced our Immense Stock.

GOLDEN EAGLE, One Price-Clothiers Furnisher. Hatter & Shoers 226 and 228 East Douglas Avenue.